Numb. 3828

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 16. to Monday July 20. 1702.

From the French Camp at Rivalta, July 6. N. S.

THE Right Wing of our Army foraged the 30th paſt near the Intrenchments of the Imperial Army, who attacked our Guard, and after a ſharp Diſpute, our Men were forced to retire with the Loſs of a Lieutenant-Colonel, a Captain, and ſeveral other Officers, and divers Soldiers killed, and many taken Priſoners; the Imperialiſts had alſo a Lieutenant-Colonel and ſeveral Officers and Soldiers killed, and we took 5 Priſoners. The King of Spain came the 3d Inſtant to Cremona, ſince which the Duke of Vendoſme has had a Conference at Bozolo with the Prince of Vaudemont, Governor of Milan; And it is ſaid that Duke is to march in 4 or 5 days with half of our Army, to paſs the Oglio at Caneto, and the Po at Casal Maggior, and to join the King of Spain near that Place; and in the mean time the Prince of Vaudemont is to come hither to take upon him the Command of the reſt of the Army which is to remain here to obſerve the Germans. What is further deſigned is not yet known, for the Siege of Berſello is ſpoken of very deſpondingly, the Germans having ſo well provided that Place with all neceſſaries for its Defence, and poſted ſo ſtrong a Body of Forces along the Lenza, where they are well intrenched, in order to cover it, that this Deſign is look'd upon to be full of Difficulties, which can not be overcome without the Loſs of much time, and of the Lives of many of our Men.

Venice, July 7. Letters from the Imperial Camp at Montanara of the 3d Inſtant give an Account, That they were intrenching themſelves in the advantageous Poſt they have lately taken at Pradella, from whence the Garriſon of Mantua has in ſeveral Sallies endeavoured to beat them, but was always repulſed with Loſs; That ſome Deſerters having reported that a good part of the French Army was to march towards Cremona to join the King of Spain, who has got ſome Forces together near that Place, Prince Eugene thereupon gave Orders to the Margrave of Anſpach and Major-General Viſconti to be in a readineſs to march with 2 Regiments of Horſe, 1 of Dragoons, 2 and half of Foot, and 4 Field-Pieces; And that they had foraged ſeveral times very ſucceſsfully, and their Parties had in ſeveral Rencounters got the better of the French, and brought home many Priſoners.

Vienna, July 12. We have an Account from Prague, That the King and Queen of the Romans proceeded from thence the 6th Inſtant towards Egra, from whence it is ſaid the King will go Poſt to the Army before Landau. Letters from the Imperial Army in Italy give an Account, That they lay very advantageouſly poſted, and ſtrongly intrenched, and had abundantly provided for the Security of Berſello, and that the French were ſending a Reinforcement of 15000 Men from that Country to their Army upon the Rhine. Conſiderable Sums of Money are ſent to Croatia to buy Proviſions for the Imperial Army in Italy, which the Emperor's Officers were doing there as well as in the Turkiſh Territories, and meet with all the Friendſhip and Aſſiſtance they can deſire from the Turks, who ſhew a great Inclination to maintain the Treaty of Carlowitz, notwithſtanding the great Endeavours lately uſed with thoſe People to perſwade them to break with the Emperor.

Francfort, July 19. The King of the Romans is expected very ſoon in the Camp before Landau. Our Accounts from thence ſay, their Cannon has ruined one of the Gates of that Town; that their Bombs have burnt down the Governor's Houſe, and ſeveral other Houſes, moſt of the Baracks in which the Soldiers of the Garriſon lay, and a Magazine of Hay and Oats; and that they have carried on their Approaches very near to the Counterſcarp: They have lately been reinforced by a Regiment of Foot of 1000 Men of the Forces of Heſſe Darmſtadt; And divers Pieces of Cannon, with a conſiderable quantity of Ammunition, have been ſent them from the Arſenal at Mentz. Marſhal Catinat is ſtill encamped with the Army under his Command near Haguenau. A Detachment of the French Garriſons of New Briſac and Heuningen has taken Poſt in the Iſland of the Rhine, near this laſt Place; upon which the Margrave of Baden Durlach has poſted himſelf along that River over-againſt the ſaid Iſland with a Body of Troops, to prevent any Deſign the Enemy may have on that ſide. Cardinal Lamberg, the Emperor's firſt Commiſſioner at the Imperial Diet, arrived at Ratiſbonne the 9th Inſtant, and the Differences between him and the Elector of Mentz's Deputy, who acts as Director of the Diet, which hindered the Proceedings of that Aſſembly, being adjuſted, it is hoped they will fall in good earneſt to the Work in hand, and enter into ſuch Meaſures as may be for the Honour and Security of the Empire.

Hamburgh, July 21. The King of Denmark came the 14th Inſtant from Rensburgh to Gluckſtad, and went back the 18th to Rensburgh, in order to his Return to Copenhagen; It is ſaid, he intends ſhortly to raiſe 6000 Men to be ſent into the Service of the Allies. They write from Warſaw of the 10th Inſtant, That the King of Sweden's Army had made a Hault 24 Leagues beyond that Place, in expectation of the coming up of their Forces from Pomeren, which were advanced within 14 Leagues of them; that the King of Poland had got together moſt of his Saxon and Poliſh Forces near Cracow, and that the Nobility of Poland were aſſembling in ſeveral Places, in order to join him with more Troops.

From the Camp of the Allies at Over-Aſſel, July 24. The 15th Inſtant, his Excellency the Earl of Marlborough with the other Generals went over the Maeſe at Grave, to view the Camp marked out for our Army near that Place; and having dined with Lieutenant General Fagell Governor of Grave, they thought fit in their return to mark out our preſent Camp on this ſide the Maeſe, whither the Army came the next day, and lies with the Left at a Village called Wichem, and the Right at another called Homen, about 2 Leagues and half from the Enemy's Camp, which is yet at Gennep, where they have intrenched themſelves. We laid 2 Bridges of Boats over the Maeſe upon our Right, and poſted a good Guard of Foot and Dragoons on the other ſide, who were ordered to caſt up ſome Works at the head of the Bridges for their Security. The 18th, the Left Wing of the Army foraged near the Villages of Great Lynde and Little Lynde, on the other ſide of the Maeſe, with a Guard of 1500 Foot and 500 Horſe, under the Command of Major-General Rantzaw. The 19th, the Right Wing foraged in the ſame Place with the like Guard, under the Command of Major-General Lumley, and the Bridges aforeſaid being ſomewhat out of order, ſo that all the Foragers could not then go over, ſuch of the Army as had not foraged thoſe two days, did it the 20th, under a Guard of the ſame Strength with the former, commanded by the Rt. Hon the Lord Cutts. The Enemy did not offer to moleſt us in theſe Forages. His Excellency the Earl of Marlborough gave Orders for the Engliſh Train of Artillery at Breda to be brought to Grave, and that the Royal Regiment of Dragoons, with thoſe of the Lord Tiviot and Colonel Roſs, and a Squadron of the Duke of Schonberg's Regiment of Horſe, ſhould accompany them, in order to join the Army; they accordingly marched under the Command of Colonel Roſs and will arrive to morrow at Boiſleduc, whither an Expreſs was ſent yeſterday, with Directions for them to ſtay there till further Orders. Yeſterday our Bridges at the Right of the Camp fell down to Grave, where it is intended the Army ſhall paſs over the Maeſe to morrow, and march to the Camp formerly marked out, with the Right at a Village called Zealand, and the Left at Grave; and we ſhall leave 16 Battalions of Foot and 7 Squadrons of Horſe at Nimeghen, for the Security of that Place. It has rained here theſe 3 days almoſt without Intermiſſion, which will render our March to morrow the more difficult. His Excellency the Earl of Marlborough has declared Prince Erneſt Auguſtus